

The Etienne family hams-it-up for a photo they call "The Family Tree." Courtesy photo

Etienne Photo Gallery

Paul and Kay Etienne pray the rosary last Nov. 12 in their Tell City home. Married for 51 years, the Etienne's raised six children. Three are now priests and one is a woman religious. They are members of St. Paul Parish in Tell City. Photo by Sean Gallagher

Kay and Paul Etienne, center, pose in 2007 with their children, from left, Angela Kellems, Rick Etienne, Father Bernard Etienne, Father Paul Etienne, Benedictine Sister Mary Nicolette Etienne and Father Zachary Etienne as they celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. Kay and Paul are members of St. Paul Parish in Tell City. Courtesy Photo

Kay Etienne plays the piano during a Communion service on Nov. 12 at the Golden Living Center-Lincoln Hills nursing home in Tell City. Kay and her husband of 51 years, Paul, continue to be active members of St. Paul Parish in Tell City. Photo by Sean Gallagher

Paul and Kay Etienne pose with their adult children for a family photo. Courtesy photo

Paul and Kay Etienne pose for a family portrait when their children were growing up. Courtesy photo

Paul and Kay Etienne raised six children. Three are now priests and one is a woman religious. Father Bernard Etienne, Benedictine Sister Mary Nicolette Etienne and Father Zachary Etienne pose with then-Father Paul Etienne. Courtesy Photo

Then-Father Paul Etienne poses with his sister Nicolette. Sister Nicolette belongs to the Sisters of St. Benedict in Beech Grove, Indiana. She teaches religion at Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Elementary School. Courtesy photo