Holy Name announces scholarships

WALTER RAGGEE
Special to the Register

SHERIDAN - Holy Name Catholic Community has awarded the Graduating Senior Scholarship to deserving seniors who have offered on-going, active service to Holy Name parish.

These scholarships are in the amount of $600 and have been awarded since 1990 and to date have helped more than 80 students launch their college careers. The recipients this year were James Burgess, Kim May, and Brad Estes. Burgess, the son of Kevin and Carole Burgess, plans to attend the University of Wyoming; May, the daughter of Pete and Debra May, plans on continuing her education at the University of Oklahoma, and Estes, son of Rick and Julie Estes, plans on attending the University of Wyoming. The scholarships were presented by Father Tom Ogg at the annual Sheridan High School Awards Assembly.

Funds for these scholarships come from the generosity of the parishioners through a special collection each year as well as from the Council of Catholic Women, Knights of Columbus, and the Thrift Shop Ladies.
